Annual Greely High School Graduation Parade

GHS seniors, parents, guests, and Cumberland/North Yarmouth residents: Please be aware that appropriate and safe behavior is expected at the traditional send-off parade of graduates held after graduation on Sunday, June 4th. No spraying of water will be tolerated, and similarly no throwing of any objects at vehicles and /or buses will be allowed. People are asked to stay out of the road during the parade, and to avoid running near the buses, etc. Any such behavior endangers both spectators and drivers and will be considered disorderly conduct which could possibly hinder the future of this wonderful community tradition. Thank you for your consideration and keeping our community safe!
